

COL. C. H. JOYCE, formerly of Northfield, has formed a partnership in the law business with C. C. Dewey, Esq., of Rutland, this State, and has moved to Rutland to resume the practice of the profession which he left when he took a commission as Major of the 2d Vermont. Mr. Dewey is one of the best lawyers in Rutland County, and Col. Joyce had established a good reputation as a lawyer in this County; and the new firm will start with excellent prospects. We commend them to the patronage of any who may be so unfortunate as to be in the need of attorneys in their vicinity.

ROBBERY IN SPRINGFIELD, VT.—On last Saturday evening, as Mr. Eddy, a citizen of Springfield, Vt., was passing through a dark shed connected with the hotel, he was seized by the throat by some ruffian, knocked down and robbed of one hundred and sixty dollars. Watch Found. FOUND in a sleigh in Montpelier Village, Saturday March 8th, a Silver Watch with a Hunting Case. The owner can have the same by proving property and paying charges. Inquire of J. V. BATTERTON, Middlesex Montpelier, March 10, 1863.

NEW YORK, March 27. The Chatanooga Rebel of the 24th has the following: PORT HUDSON, March 21. Reports of the sinking of the sloop of war Richmond from inquiries received on the 15th prevail, nothing definite being known. The mortar fleet still occupy their old positions below, and out of reach of our guns. Some activity has prevailed among the enemy's transports for the last two days, but there have been no indications of another attempt to pass the batteries.

Twenty deserters have arrived in the last two or three days, and they are continually coming in. They confirm the previous reports of the demoralization of Gen. Banks' army. Our batteries sustained no injury in the late engagement, and are ready at all times to give the enemy a warm reception. The Appeal learns of no new movement at Port Hudson. Gen. Banks had fallen back to his fortified camp, and manifested no disposition to advance. Deserters continue to come in and report disaffection in their camps. The fleet continues out of sight. The two vessels above have been slowly steaming up the river. They landed and cut down a few poles and telegraph wires.

FORT PERRY, March 20. Gen. Loring has whipped the enemy back from this point. They are now in full retreat for Yazoo Pass. Vicksburg, March 25. The gunboats Hartford and Monongahela passed Warrenton about 6 o'clock this evening. After a heavy cannonading of an hour's duration, which was dimly heard at this city, they arrived safely, and are now anchored below this city, at Tweed's Point.

The Richmond correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says Gen. Lee's whereabouts remains a profound mystery. New York, March 26. The Tribune has the following special despatch: STONEMAN'S STATION, Va., March 25. Reports came in thick and fast yesterday to the effect that the enemy was in force on our right flank but investigation proves that there was no cause for alarm in that direction, only a few scouts having been discovered.

The real cause of the excitement was the appearance of bodies of the enemy's infantry on the South side of the Rappahannock at Banks' and United States ferries, with an evident purpose of preventing our crossing the river at that point. Our correspondent stated, a day or two ago, that forloughs would be continued as a permanent regulation. I now learn that they will be temporarily suspended at certain times, whenever the exigencies of the service require it.

A circular issued yesterday suggests that the presence of ladies in camp is no longer necessary or profitable, and an immediate begin of continuing will ensue.

HALIFAX, March 26. The steamship Delta, from St. Thomas the 17th, and Bermuda the 23d, arrived here to-day. The Van orbit arrived at St. Thomas on the 15th from Barbadoes. The Governor of Barbadoes, invited Admiral Wilkes to dine with him, but he declined, giving as the reason, that he had entertained the pirate Maffit a few days previously.

Admiral Wilkes transferred his flag to the Vanderbilt. The steamer Avies, another blockade runner, which Admiral Wilkes threatened to seize if it left, started on the 15th, but observing that preparations were being made by the federals to pursue, turned back, anchored, and applied to the tugboat Perry for protection, which was afforded. The Vanderbilt left the same day, it was said, for Havana.

CINCINNATI, March 27. The rebel force in Kentucky is believed to be about 6000 men under Gen. Pegram. It is reported that Wolford's cavalry captured 200 rebels yesterday. Clark's guerrillas still hover around M. Starbuck. Over 200 of his men have been captured since Sunday last. No apprehensions are felt for the safety of Lexington. The federal wagon trains, stores and camp equipage, from Danville and Richmond, have reached Lexington in safety.

Among the prisoners captured are two Majors and a paymaster, with 1500 in Confederate money. Telegrams in late rebel papers indicate that Gen. Longstreet with a large army is pushing rapidly into Kentucky.

New York March 27. Efforts have been made to-day to obtain an intelligible statement of the military situation of the Mississippi, but repeated telegrams of inquiry elicit no answers. It is hoped that Farragut passed Port Hudson with his fleet as the latest despatch concurring with that from Baton Rouge states. It is also hoped that Admiral Porter is in the Yazoo, though the route by which he is said to have got there is not easy to trace.

Gold opened to-day at $1.39 1/2. At twelve o'clock, it ranged from $1.39 3/4 to $1.40 3/4.
